

Korea's Journey to Diversity

Asian Friends of Sewol and Migration TO Asia Peace (MAP) invite you to the 2nd forum:

Korea is increasingly becoming a multicultural society. At the forum, we will have a chance to listen to the voices from ethnics on social issues in Korea. Afterwards, we will have further discussions on Korea's journey to diversity by reflecting on the implications of the unresolved Sewol Ferry Tragedy in 2014.

🎗 Date : 11.9.2016 Sunday, 3:00 to 5:00 pm

🎗 Place: Migration TO Asia Peace
(MAP) office
#204, Xiella Building,
Shincon, Seoul, Near Exit 1,
Ehwa Women's University Station

🎗 Program:

🎗 Part (1) Bridging Different Voices from refugees

Presenter (1) Ishmael Mersham (Iraq)

Presenter (2) Miyah (Congo)

🎗 Part (2) A Boat for Compensation

Role Play about the process of compensation after Sewol ferry tragedy

🎗 Part (3) Activity "Tree of Privilege"

Discussions about social obstacles that create a hierarchy of privileges in society

🎗 For further inquiry

: Jungin Hwang (010-3999-4486)

: Youngah Kim (010-2513-8081)

